

Renato Mascherin, CEO
Brovedani spa

RENATO MASCHERIN is Chief Executive Officer of Brovedani Spa. Born in Belgium in 1954 he holds a Diploma of Proficiency in Mechanics from the Mechanic Institute of Pordenone.

He is hired in Brovedani in 1972, among the initial 12 employees of the company just acquired by the new owners, with the title of Technical Designer and soon became Technical Manager.

From 1985 to 1995 he served as Head of Production of all the production including the remote plants.

In 1995 he is Responsible for the startup and management of the remote plants of Modugno (BA) and Perignano Lari (PI).

In 2004, contributes to the foundation of Brovedani Slovakia in Galanta where he became Chief Executive Officer.

He became General Manager of Brovedani spa in 2007 and since 2010 he holds the position of Chief Executive Officer.

Outside the company since 1984 has been Chairman of the Private Kindergarten of Bannia di Fiume Veneto.

Since 2002 he is a member of the Joint Committee at "Consorzio Ponte Rosso", the consortium for the development of the Industrial Area of Ponte Rosso in San Vito al Tagliamento (PN).

Since 2006 he is member of the Board of Directors of the Consorzio Ponte Rosso representing the companies located in the industrial area of Ponte Rosso.

Since 2004 he is member of the Steering Committee of the Metalworking Section of Industrial Union of Pordenone.

Since 2008 he is member of the Board of the Industrial Union of Pordenone. Since 2010 he is National Representative for the engineering industry for the Industrial Union of Pordenone.

Since 2011 he is Vice President of the Industrial Union of Pordenone in the Section Mechanical Engineering and Vice President of the Consorzio Ponte Rosso of which in 2013 will act as President "pro tempore".

In July 2014 he was elected President of the Consorzio Ponte Rosso.